

AWJ ensures connectivity and global coverage

Arabian Watches & Jewellery Magazine welcomes our correspondents in Switzerland, USA, France and Singapore. Our multi-national contributors are experienced, professional journalists who are extremely knowledgeable on issues and matters related to the premium watch and fine jewellery industry in the traditional luxury centres across the world.

SWITZERLAND

Keith W. Strandberg

Keith W. Strandberg has been covering the Swiss watch industry from his post in Geneva for more than a decade. He is currently the International Editor for InSync (USA) and Europa Star (Europe) magazines, the Editor-in-Chief of the New York Times' Watch Your Time and Watch Editor for Jeweler's Quarterly (USA).

USA

Roberta Naas

With a Master of Arts Degree in Newspaper Journalism from New York's Syracuse University, USA-based Roberta Naas is a respected, prolific, influential and experienced writer who writes extensively about jewellery & watches for a wide variety of consumer & luxury lifestyle publications in Europe & the USA.

FRANCE

Victoria Townsend

Toronto-born Canadian, Victoria Townsend majored in French at McGill University in Montreal and spent several years in the Middle East. She has covered Baselworld and SIHH since 1997, has contributed several articles and conducted interviews with top professionals from the fashion, watch and jewellery industries.

SINGAPORE

Pooja Agarwal

A graduate gemmologist from the Gemmological Association of Great Britain, Singapore-based Pooja Agarwal is a specialist writer and columnist for global fashion, watch and jewellery magazines. Her passion for jewels was greatly ignited after her stay in the Italian fashion city of Milan. She has travelled extensively.